

We Rate Dogs Project - Wrangle and Analyze Data

They say an image describes better than a thousand words, Let's check our questions together to see what our images answers for us today.

Here are some questions that were asked during the project

1. What is the most popular rating?
2. What does the relationship between retweets and favorites look like?
3. What is the most popular dog breed?
4. What is the most favorited tweets to date?

In the following we will tackle each of these questions as much as possible:

1. What is the most popular rating?

It seems that the dogs' communities are very generous with their scorings

Most of the values (more than 75%) are all 10/10

This shows heavy bias and even though they must have had cons, their owners were more than happy to disregard

Some values were even added as more than 10 sometimes reach "140/120", even which if it shows anything, it shows how much affection the owners give them

2. What does the relationship between retweets and favorites look like?

It looks like they go hand in hand

Whenever a tweet is retweeted a lot, the number of favorites it gets becomes larger and it shows is the direct proportionality between favoriting a tweet and retweeting it Whether this value is due to more reach, has a better image or simply just cute, can be studied more.

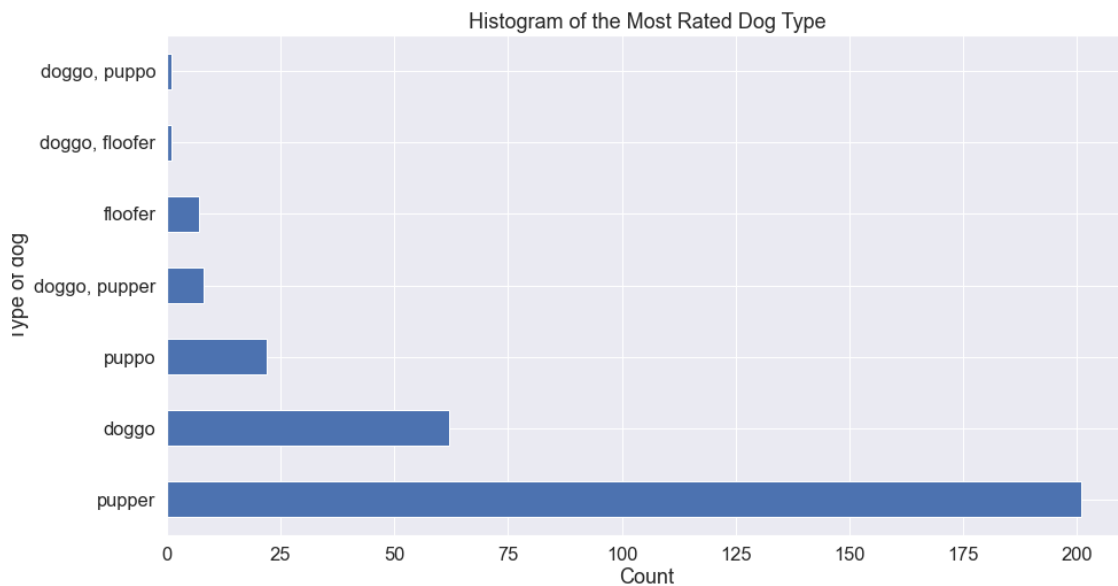

At the end of the day if one of them is high the other is sure to follow

I mean, who can resist such cute fellas

3. What is the most popular dog breed?

The last part seems to be a clear winner for pupper without competitor
It seems to be the most popular in terms of rating and it is sure is cute.

But wait,

What if we wanted to know what the most popular breed is specifically?

Well, let's check it out!

A golden retriever pupper seems to be everyone's dream

Imagine going in to your home and he looks at you with those eyes! here goes all your negative energy away and you are ready to play

4. Let's check out the most popular tweets and what their owners' have to say about their cute fellas

In the lead with 155136 favorites and 77112 retweets comes the enlightened dog, he was able to learn to walk in a swimming pool!!! THAT is impressive.
